

Sports

THE SWANSON COURT
COAST GUARD

The Coast Guard
February 23, 2010
www.NovaNewsNow.com

10

Senior men advance

By Kathy Johnson
THE COAST GUARD
NovaNewsNow.com

Both the Barrington Regional Curling Club and the Shelburne Curling Club will be represented at the senior men's provincial championships in Amherst on Feb. 24 to 26, after qualifying at the senior men's south zones hosted by the Shelburne club on Feb. 12 to 14.

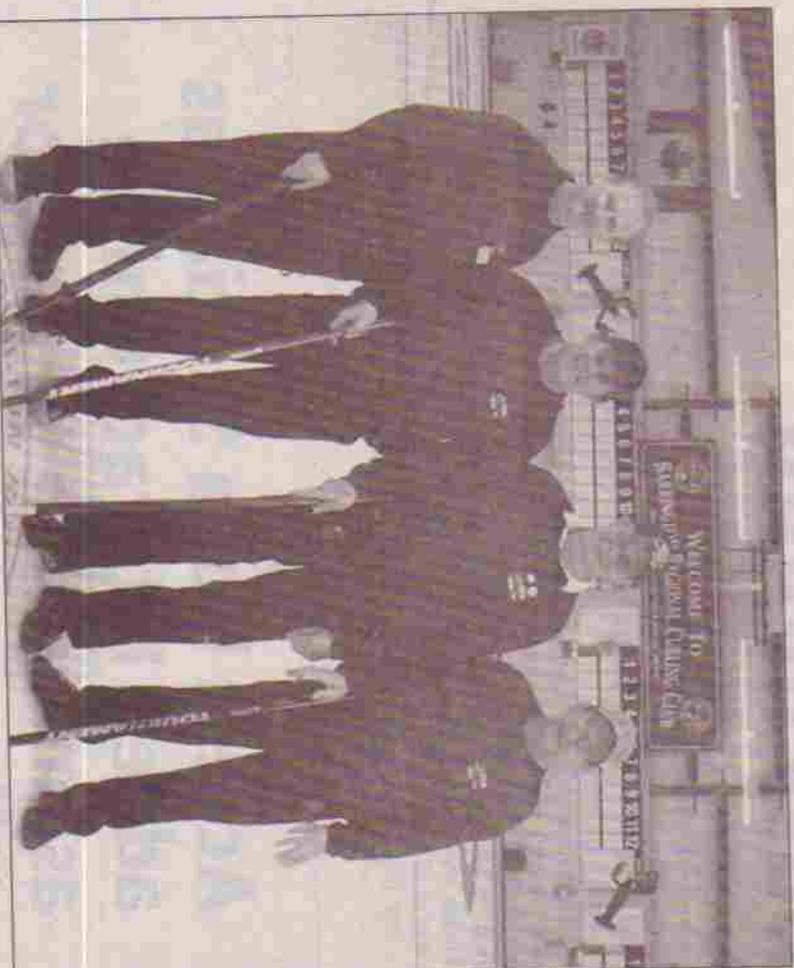

From Barrington skip Percy Peters, lead Ricky Smith, second Gary Blades, third Arthur O'Connell and fifth Bob Malley were among the six teams to advance from the zones to the provincials.

From Shelburne, skip Greg Hicks whose team members hail from Yarmouth and Liverpool rinks (Alan Crosby, Mike Green, Bruce Briand and Albert Smart) also topped the 11 team qualifying round to advance.

Twelve teams will be competing for the provincial crown, with the top rink advancing to the national championships.

// From Shelburne, skip Greg Hicks whose team members hail from Yarmouth and Liverpool rinks (Alan Crosby, Mike Green, Bruce Briand and Albert Smart) also topped the 11 team qualifying round to advance. //

BRC skip Percy Peters (from left) along with Arthur O'Connell, Gary Blades, Ricky Smith and Bob Malley (not pictured) will be competing for the senior men's provincial curling championship in Amherst on Feb. 24 to 26.

Photo contributed