

Jerry Flemming delivers a stone during Lobster Spiel action at the Barrington Regional Curling Club on Feb. 5. Also pictured are teammates Doug Drane (left) and Arnold Townsend. Walking by and watching the shot is Chester curler Rysh Harnish. In the background is Barrington's Dave Langille and Lee Nickerson.

Kathy Johnson photo

Greg Hicks' rink wins lobster spiel

By Kathy Johnson
THE COAST GUARD
NovaNewsNow.com

Shelburne's Greg Hicks' rink was the A Division winners at the 11th annual Lobster Spiel hosted by the Barrington Curling Club on Feb. 4 to 6.

Twenty-four teams from as far away as Brookfield competed in the event.

"It was a success," said club manager Sherry Atwood. "We had a packed house all weekend."

Rounding out the Hicks' team were Allan Crosby, Ray Bullerwell and Herbert Penney.

Yarmouth's Shawn Christensen, Nick Hilton, Albert Whittaker and Charles MacIsaac were the A Division runners up.

Winning the A Division consolation were Barrington's Percy Peters, Daryl Taylor, Cleverly Smith and Patrick Ross.

In the B Division, Peter Harris, Lorry Cochran, Tom Zanorcott and Bill Ettinger were the winners, with Mike McNeil, Doug Drane, Jerry Flemming and Arnold Townsend runners-up.

In the C Division, Barrington's Arthur O'Connell, Peter Swim, Lee Nickerson and Dave Langille took top honours. Runners-up were Bob Malay, Randy Chetwynd, Wayne Mullins and Jeff Gregory, also from the Barrington club.

The team of Greg Hicks, Herbert Penney, Allan Crosby and Ray Bullerwell were the A Division winners at the BRCC Lobster Spiel.

Photo contributed