The Barrington Regional Curling Club will be icing a team at the World Left Handed Curling Championships in Oakvale, Ontario on March 31 to April 3.

Southpaws Bob Cushing, Bob Malay, John Joyce and Murray Atkinson will be among the 64 teams competing in nine divisions at the 38th annual championship tournament, which attracts teams from North America and Europe.

a team to the competition.

"It's not too often you have four left handed curlers together in a club," said Cushing.

When asked how he thought they'd fair out, Malay replied: "I have no idea. We'll be up against the world."

The team is being sponsored by Wilson's Shopping Centre and has also received support from the Municipality of Barrington.

Besides curling, team members will also be promoting the Municipality of Bar-
