

Full house for Lobster Spiel

There was a full slate of teams for the Barrington Regional Curling Club's annual Lobster Spiel on the Feb. 4 weekend.

Twenty-four teams competed in three divisions during the three day tournament.

In the A Division, Aaron Sweeney, Wade Newell, Wayne Newell and Bill Newell from the Yarmouth Curling Club were the winners.

A Division runners up were Eric Pothier, Carl, Corneau, Daniel Coggins and Jacques Deveau from the Clare Curling Club.

A Division consolation winners were Arthur O'Connell, Peter Swin, Leigh Nickerson and Ricky Swin from the Barrington Regional Curling Club.

In the B Division, Shelburne Curling Club's team of Mike McNeil, Mark Mahaney, Jerry Flemming and Arnold Townsend were the winners.

B Division runners up were Greg Hicks, Paul Goulden, Tyler Butler and Charlie Perry, also from the Shelburne Curling Club.

In the C Division, Clark Acker, Kenny Mahaney, Norm Waller and Mike Molyneaux from the Shelburne Curling Club took top spot.

C Division runners up were Leroy Burns, Robbie Campbell, Troy Taylor and John Campbell from the Brookfield Curling Club.

Barrington Regional Curling Club curlers Arthur O'Connell, Leigh Nickerson, Peter Swin and Ricky Swin work the ice during semi-final action at the Lobster Spiel. The team were the consolation winners in the A Division. -Kathy Johnson photo